Section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code provides that the Court may award a professional person employed under section 327 or 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code “reasonable compensation for actual necessary services rendered . . . and reimbursement of actual, necessary expenses.” 11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(1).

30. In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded, the Court shall consider the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including:

- (a) the time spent on such services;
- (b) the rates charged for such services;
- (c) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this title;
- (d) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed;
- (e) with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the bankruptcy field; and

31. PSZJ respectfully submits that it has satisfied the requirements for the allowance of the compensation and reimbursement of expenses sought herein. The services described above, at the time they were provided, were necessary and beneficial to the Committee, the Debtors and the Debtors' estates. PSZJ's services were consistently performed in a timely manner, commensurate with the complexity of the issues facing the Committee and the nature and importance of the problems, issues, and tasks. Furthermore, the compensation sought by PSZJ is reasonable because it is based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners outside of bankruptcy. Accordingly, approval of the compensation sought herein is warranted.
